Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation (“Booz Allen”), the parent company of management and technology consulting firm Booz Allen Hamilton Inc. (the “Borrower”), today announced that the company’s management is exploring, subject to continuing management review and to further consideration and ultimate approval by the company’s Board of Directors, a possible repricing and maturity extension amendment for the Borrower’s outstanding $1,618 million of indebtedness under its existing revolving, Term Loan A and Term Loan B credit facilities. Under the proposed amendment, the Borrower would reallocate a portion of its indebtedness currently under its Term Loan B facility to its Term Loan A facility. The repricing and maturity extension amendment is not intended to increase the Borrower’s total amount of outstanding indebtedness. The Borrower is exploring this potential repricing and maturity extension amendment in connection with the ongoing evaluation of its capital structure, taking into account a currently favorable credit environment.

If consummated, the terms of the repricing and maturity extension amendment will be disclosed upon completion. For the avoidance of doubt, the consummation of the repricing and maturity extension amendment is subject to further consideration and ultimate approval by the company’s Board of Directors.
