EXPLANATORY NOTE

On July 26, 2023 (the “Effective Date”), the stockholders of Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation (the “Company”) approved the 2023 Equity Incentive Plan of Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation (the “2023 Plan”), which replaced and succeeded the Third Amended and Restated Equity Incentive Plan of Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation (as amended and restated effective January 28, 2020, the “Prior Plan”). No future awards will be made under the Prior Plan. Pursuant to the terms of the 2023 Plan, the aggregate number of shares of the Company’s Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Common Stock”), available for issuance under the 2023 Plan is (i) 6,100,000 of the shares of Common Stock that have been previously registered and remain available for issuance under the Prior Plan as of the Effective Date, plus (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock underlying any equity award previously granted under the Prior Plan that terminates, is forfeited, is repurchased, expires or lapses, and again become available for issuance under the terms of the Prior Plan from and after the Effective Date.

The Company previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (i) a Registration Statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-171288) on December 20, 2010 (the “2010 Registration Statement”) to register 28,000,000 shares of Common Stock for offer or sale pursuant to the Prior Plan and (ii) a Registration Statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-205956) on July 30, 2015 (the “2015 Registration Statement”) to register an additional 5,000,000 shares of Common Stock for offer or sale pursuant to the Prior Plan.

As of the Effective Date, the 5,000,000 shares of Common Stock previously registered under the 2015 Registration Statement remain available for issuance under the Prior Plan (such shares the “Prior Plan’s Shares”). The Company is filing this Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 to the 2015 Registration Statement (the “Post-Effective Amendment”) to amend the 2015 Registration Statement to cover the issuance of the Prior Plan’s Shares pursuant to the 2023 Plan in accordance with SEC Compliance and Disclosure Interpretation 126.43. For avoidance of doubt, the Company is not registering any additional shares of Common Stock for issuance under the 2023 Plan that were not previously approved by the Company’s stockholders as of the Effective Date.

Contemporaneously with the filing of this Post-Effective Amendment, the Company is filing a Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 to the 2010 Registration Statement to (i) amend the 2010 Registration Statement to cover the offer or sale of certain shares of Common Stock previously registered under the 2010 Registration Statement under the 2023 Plan in accordance with SEC Compliance and Disclosure Interpretation 126.43, and (ii) deregister the remaining shares of Common Stock previously registered under the 2010 Registration Statement that are available for issuance under the Prior Plan but will not be used for awards under the 2023 Plan.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware.

Section 145(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the “DGCL”) provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person’s conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145(c) of the DGCL provides that to the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 145 of the DGCL, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 145(e) of the DGCL provides that expenses (including attorneys’ fees) incurred by an officer or director of the corporation in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in Section 145 of the DGCL. Such expenses, including attorneys’ fees, incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents of the corporation or by persons serving at the request of the corporation as directors, officers, employees or agents of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the corporation deems appropriate.

Section 145(g) of the DGCL specifically allows a Delaware corporation to purchase liability insurance on behalf of its directors and officers and to insure against potential liability of such directors and officers regardless of whether the corporation would have the power to indemnify such directors and officers under Section 145 of the DGCL.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits a Delaware corporation to include a provision in its certificate of incorporation eliminating or limiting the personal liability of officers who have consented to service of process to the registered agent of the corporation (such officers, “senior officers”) and directors to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or senior officer. This provision, however, may not eliminate or limit liability (1) for breach of the director’s or senior officer’s duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) of a director under Section 174 of the DGCL, which provides for liability of directors for unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions, (4) for any transaction from which the director or senior officer derived an improper personal benefit, or (5) of a senior officer for any action by or in the right of the corporation.

Section 174 of the DGCL provides, among other things, that a director who willfully and negligently approves of an unlawful payment of dividends or an unlawful stock purchase or redemption may be held liable for such actions. A director who was either absent when the unlawful actions were approved or dissented at the time may avoid liability by causing his or her dissent to such actions to be entered in the books containing the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors at the time the action occurred or immediately after the absent director receives notice of the unlawful acts.

The Seventh Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation (the “Certificate of Incorporation”) contains provisions relating to the liability of directors and senior officers. These provisions eliminate a director’s or a senior officer’s personal liability for monetary damages resulting from a breach of fiduciary duty, except in circumstances involving:

- any breach of the director’s or senior officer’s duty of loyalty;
- acts or omissions of a director or senior officer that are not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;
- liability of a director under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (unlawful dividends);
- any transaction from which the director or senior officer derives an improper personal benefit; or
- liability of a senior officer in any action by or in right of the Company.

The principal effect of the limitation on liability provision is that a stockholder will be unable to prosecute an action for monetary damages against a director or senior officer unless the stockholder can demonstrate a basis for liability for which indemnification is not available under the DGCL. These provisions, however, should not limit or eliminate the Company’s rights or any stockholder’s rights to seek non-monetary relief, such as an injunction or rescission, in the event of a breach of director’s or senior officer’s fiduciary duty. These provisions will not alter a director’s or senior officer’s liability under federal securities laws. The inclusion of this provision in the Certificate of Incorporation may discourage or deter stockholders or management from bringing a lawsuit against directors or senior officers for a breach of their fiduciary duties, even though such an action, if successful, might otherwise have benefited the Company and its stockholders.

The Amended and Restated Bylaws of Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation (the “Bylaws”) require the Company to indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL and other applicable law, except in the case of a proceeding instituted by the director without the approval of the board of directors of the Company, for all judgments, fines, settlements, legal fees and other expenses incurred in connection with pending or threatened legal proceedings because of the director’s or officer’s positions with the Company or another entity that the director or officer serves at the Company’s request, subject to various conditions, and to advance funds to the Company’s directors and officers to enable them to defend against such proceedings. To receive indemnification, the director or officer must have been successful in the legal proceeding or have acted in good faith and in what was reasonably believed to be a lawful manner in the best interest of the Company and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

In addition, pursuant to certain indemnification agreements between the Company and each of its directors and executive officers, the Company has agreed to indemnify such individuals against certain liabilities arising out of service as a director or officer of the Company and its subsidiaries. The indemnification agreements provide such directors and executive officers with contractual rights to the indemnification and expense advancement rights provided under the Bylaws, as well as contractual rights to additional indemnification as provided in the indemnification agreements.

Item 9. Undertakings.

A. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(a) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(b) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement; and

(c) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that the undertakings set forth in paragraphs A(1)(a) and A(1)(b) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

B. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act and, where applicable, each filing of a plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) under the Exchange Act, that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel to Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), in connection with the preparation of the Company’s Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 (the “Post-Effective Amendment”) to the Registration Statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-205956) (the “2015 Registration Statement”) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), which the Company is filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) with respect to certain shares of Class A Common Stock of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (the “Common Stock”), issuable pursuant to the 2023 Equity Incentive Plan of Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation (the “2023 Plan”), such Shares having originally been authorized for issuance under the Third Amended and Restated Equity Incentive Plan of Booz Allen Hamilton Holding Corporation (as amended and restated effective January 28, 2020, the “Prior Plan”) pursuant to the 2015 Registration Statement.

On July 26, 2023 (the “Effective Date”), the stockholders of the Company approved the 2023 Plan, which replaced and succeeded the Prior Plan. The aggregate number of shares of Common Stock available for issuance under the 2023 Plan is (i) 6,100,000 of the shares of Common Stock that have been previously registered and remain available for issuance under the Prior Plan as of the Effective Date, plus (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock underlying any equity award previously granted under the Prior Plan that terminates, is forfeited, is repurchased, expires or lapses, and again become available for issuance under the terms of the Prior Plan from and after the Effective Date. As of the Effective Date, the 5,000,000 shares of Common Stock previously registered under the 2015 Registration Statement remain available for issuance under the Prior Plan, and will be carried over from the Prior Plan to the 2023 Plan for issuance under the 2023 Plan (such shares the “Prior Plan’s Shares”).

In connection with this opinion, we have examined the originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the Post-Effective Amendment, the 2023 Plan and such other corporate records, agreements, documents, certificates or other instruments of the Company, and have made such legal and factual inquiries, as in our judgment were necessary, relevant or appropriate to enable us to render the opinion set forth below. In giving this opinion, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the legal competence and capacity of all natural persons, the authenticity of all instruments presented to us as originals and the conformity with originals of all instruments presented to us as copies. As to all matters of fact material to the opinion expressed herein that we did not independently establish or verify, we have relied on the representations and statements of fact made in the instruments so reviewed, or on the statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Company.

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth herein, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Prior Plan’s Shares to be issued pursuant to the terms of the 2023 Plan have been duly authorized and, when issued in accordance with the terms of the 2023 Plan, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

The opinion expressed herein is limited to the laws of the State of Delaware and the federal laws of the United States of America, and we do not purport to express an opinion on the laws of any other jurisdiction.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Post-Effective Amendment. In giving such consent, we do not thereby admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Debevoise & Plimpton LLP
