Army Selects Booz Allen for "EXPRESS" Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA)

Booz Allen to Provide Advisory and Assistance Support Relating to Engineering and Technical Services

MCLEAN, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The U.S. Army has selected Booz Allen Hamilton (NYSE:BAH) as a prime contractor for its Expedited Professional and Engineering Support Services (EXPRESS) Technical Domain BPA.

"Booz Allen is delighted to receive this significant award," said Bob Smith, a Senior Vice President with Booz Allen and a leader of the firm's defense work. "The EXPRESS BPA provides us with the opportunity to deliver the requisite mission critical services and cutting-edge innovation so vital to the warfighter's effectiveness on the battlefield."

The EXPRESS BPA is a multiple award vehicle, awarded against the GSA Schedules, which provides comprehensive advisory and assistance services to the AMCOM Life Cycle Management Command, U.S. Army Program Executive Office (PEOs) for Aviation, PEO for Missiles and Space, U.S. Army Materiel Command (AMC), U.S. Army Research, Development, and Engineering Command (RDECOM), and other Redstone customers.

The EXPRESS BPA award draws upon Booz Allen's ability to drive innovation and leverage cutting edge technologies to meet complex warfighter needs in an austere budget environment. In particular, the firm's emphasis on investing in key systems engineering processes, platform modernization, cyber solutions, and information assurances capitalizes on its commitment to deliver value and efficiency throughout the acquisition lifecycle.
