U.S. Defense Human Resources Activity Selects Booz Allen as Recipient of Five-Year, $37.4M Contract to Provide Operational Support for National Language Service Corps

MCLEAN, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Whether to support regional crisis relief or national security objectives, the National Language Service Corps (NLSC) provides supplemental language resources to U.S. federal agencies through a civilian group of multilingual volunteers. To elevate NLSC operational capabilities, the Defense Human Resources Activity has awarded Booz Allen Hamilton (NYSE: BAH) a five-year, $37.4M contract in March to administer crucial functions of the NLSC, including member services and information management support.

"We are pleased to build upon our partnership with the U.S. Department of Defense by supporting the NLSC in its mission to provide critical language services, anytime, anywhere," said Don Padgett, vice president at Booz Allen. "Booz Allen will bring its best-in-class team of linguists, strategists and data scientists to streamline processes for member recruitment and proficiency accreditation. Booz Allen will also provide leading cyber protection to safeguard member privacy and to ensure that member information is shared securely between government partners."
